++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Largely cloudy with some outbreaks of drizzly rain overnight.

This Evening and Tonight:
Rather cloudy evening, with outbreaks of light rain or drizzle across northwestern parts, gradually moving southeast overnight. Some clear spells returning for northwestern areas by dawn. A very mild night for some, mainly in eastern areas. Minimum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Thursday:
Early brighter spells in the northwest limited as cloudy skies elsewhere return. Otherwise cloudy, mostly dry, but a small chance of drizzle. Some afternoon sunny intervals perhaps developing. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Sunny spells and breezy Friday, but cloudier overnight into Saturday, with rain at times. Probably dry but rather cloudy Saturday. Turning wetter, and perhaps windy Sunday, with rain spreading northeast.
